Bring a Friend to Church – Tuesday 30 March – Service for Holy Week (Rev Philip Drake and Graham Tennant).

In the beginning – An evening of songs and organ music with Brenda and John Cheer – Saturday 20 March 7.30 pm. at this church, with retiring collection for the Church Building Fund. A unique programme in which original songs rub shoulders with classics from Bach to Bacharach and favourite organ pieces. (see poster in porch).

Handel's 'Messiah' will be performed at Llandaff Cathedral by the Cathedral Choral Society on Saturday, 27 March at 7.30 pm.

Easter Day: 8.30 am. Service in the Quiet Garden followed by breakfast.

Chapter and Verse, a musical based on the story of Jesus from Palm Sunday to Easter Day, by Mal Stone, a member at Wesley, Caerphilly, will be performed at a North Section evening service on Easter Sunday (4 April). Choir members are invited. Main rehearsals: Wesley Sunday afternoons from 2.15 to 3.30 pm starting 21 February. Contact Sue O'Hare (2066684).

Action for Children – Jean Dickson thanks everyone who helped to raise the sum of £296.05 for the annual collection.

Empty Cereal Boxes are being collected by Les Davies for use by a friend. If you can help, please leave them in the box in the porch.

Readers for Sunday Services. Paul Demery is compiling a rota of Bible readers who are prepared to take part if preachers ask for them. If you wish to join the rota would you please tell Paul. This should ensure a spread of readers and assist the stewards' preparation.

NOTICES. We are seeking to reduce the number of last minute notices read out by stewards before each Sunday service. To assist this, would you please remember to send items to Geoff Roberts in good time for inclusion in the next month's Notices.

Church catering: If you need refreshments for a church activity, see list of catering co-ordinators on the notice board/web site and contact the appropriate people. They will then organise the work. Please try to give plenty of notice:
