Junior Church (Sundays, 10.30 - Contact Paul Demery 029 2076 2565).

Jonah: March 4 - 11. Jonah takes God's message to Nineveh. Jonah 1 and 2 show how God's mercy can work, even with our disobedience. In the second session (Jonah 3 and 4), Jonah is upset by God's mercy on the Assyrians. But God's mercy is not only for those who we think deserve it; it is for all who turn to God, for his justice is for the whole world.

Family ties: March 18 - 25. The story of Ruth. In Ruth 1 we see how faithful Ruth is when she refuses to leave her mother-in-law. This reminds us that we need to live a life committed to others' needs as God directs us. In Ruth 2-4 we look at the way Ruth, Naomi and Boaz work together with God and are rewarded. In this story, God provides Ruth with a husband, house and food. That is not to say that we should expect the same. However, what we do receive from God we should be thankful for, because he gives us all we need.
